

A Meeting Celebrating Air and Space Flight

Herpa at ILA in Berlin

From 10 to 14 June 2026, BER Airport will once again become the hub of the international aerospace industry. As one of the world's leading aerospace trade fairs, ILA Berlin brings together key players from the industry, politics, research, and the armed forces.

On its public days, ILA offers the general public the opportunity to experience the latest trends in aerospace up close. For us, this trade fair is not only a chance to exchange ideas, but also to get in touch with people sharing our passion to soar above the clouds.

In keeping with the theme of the fair, we are bringing three exhibition models to our outdoor stand – C1/100:

539005 for the trade fair price of 40,00 Euro

Luftwaffe Airbus A400M Atlas - LTG62 / Air Transport Wing 62, Wunstorf
"10 Jahre A400M" - 1:500

538985 for the trade fair price of 40,00 Euro

Condor Boeing 757-300 "Willi"- 1:500

613576 for the trade fair price of 25,00 Euro:

Condor Boeing 757-300 "Willi"- 1:200 Snapfit

Our Wings team looks forward to welcoming everyone visiting Berlin from 10 to 14 June 2026.
